

CURRICULUM TEACHING ASSISTANT

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and efficient Curriculum Teaching Assistant to work within our vibrant and dedicated Inclusion department.

The Inclusion department offers support to pupils with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) at Little Heath School, as well as students with other social and emotional and learning needs. The department also helps those pupils for whom engagement with learning is a barrier. Enthusiasm, patience and a willingness to work with pupils of all ages is necessary.

The successful candidate will support our young people as part of their wider recovery curriculum and will work alongside the Inclusion team in a specialised area at the school. We currently deliver a range of curriculum packages to cohorts of children who need bespoke and differentiated learning so as to be successful.

Grade B SP1 £17,842 p.a. pro-rata (Approximately £10,632.00 p.a. 26.25 hours per week, (term time only, plus one Inset)

The person/s we are seeking will:

- work with individual students to support their academic progress, lesson engagement and emotional wellbeing;
- support pupils to ensure they make better progress across the curriculum;
- assist in the personalisation and differentiation of teaching resources and activities within subject departments;
